

As an Indiana citizen, I am against proceeding 02-278. Indiana's current DO NOT CALL list is sufficient, and should not be tampered with. Before this law was in effect, I received 20-25 telemarketing calls per day. Now we receive maybe one every other week, which is just fine.